

IMIK ENTERPRISES DIVERSITY PROGRAMS

Assembly/Classroom Formatted Programs:

African-American Storytelling: (Age/Grade Appropriate Formats K-College)
Fast paced and packed with exciting information and activities. Provides a fun way to experience the historical, educational, and entertaining aspects of storytelling. Provides a participative mode that gives the audience an opportunity to be part of a story.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration: (Age/Grade Appropriate Formats K-College)
Combines a Rosa Parks dramatization and poetry to provide an impressive historical account of Dr. King's life. Concludes with an innovative activity that provides the students with a personal experience with color discrimination.

PRICING:

Assembly: Up to 500 elementary students: $400
over 500 students: $550

Up to 1,000 secondary/college students: $500 over 1,000 students: $750

Classroom: $150 - Great Enhancer to Social Studies/History Classes

Birthday Party Storytelling

Let's celebrate that special birthday person with an exciting storytelling performance. Better than a clown or a magician! Fun storytelling that you can capture on a video as a keepsake.

Cost: $50

Storytelling Workshop

Oral History and Storytelling Techniques: Be Your Own Storyteller
Learn techniques to tell stories that reflect you, your family history, your passion for life. Cost: $150

To Schedule – Contact: Kimi Irene Ginn Owner-Consultant, IMIK Enterprises

Website: www.imikenterprises.com Phone Contact: (253) 273-2999 Email: imik1@msn.com

Travel Expenses May Be Assessed

UP TO 20% DISCOUNTS AVAILABLE FOR EARLY
BOOKINGS AND PRE-PAYS !!!!!!!